Funeral Held For G. E. Nance Saturday p. m.

GEO. E. NANCE

George E. Nance, 59, died Thursday morning at 9:15 o'clock at the Baylor Hospital in Dallas where he underwent an operation on his lung a few days previously. He was one of the best known registered Hereford cattlemen in Texas, and has done much to improve the registered cattle industry in this section.

The funeral was held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Methodist Church in Canyon, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Lester L. Hill.

Mr. Nance was born at Hallettsville, Jan. 3, 1896. He served in World War I as an officer in the United States Navy.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Bessie Lucille Nance; his mother, Mrs. Lucy A. Nance of Brownville; two brothers, Al Nance of Rio Frio and Bennett Nance of Kerrville; three sisters, Mrs. H. B. Hager of Ada, Okla., Mrs. Norma Becker of Brownville, Mrs. W. T. Oliver of Amarillo.

Pall bearers were nephews of Mr. Nance: Harry Nance Hager, George Sandy Oliver, Dan Nance, Larry Nance, David Fisher, Weldon Hager, Murry Beecker, Quinton Lewis.

The body was brought from Dallas by the Griggs-Warren Funeral Home, who were in charge of funeral arrangement.

Mr. Nance was among the 10 top Hereford breeders in the nation. His 10,000 acre ranch east of Canyon was the model in arrangements and equipment for cattlemen throughout the nation.

Due to failing health, a dispersal sale was staged last fall, but since that time Mr. Nance has been rebuilding his herd of registered Herefords, which now number about 200 head. He was one of the best showmen in the cattle ring, and his entries have won in all of the big shows of the Southwest.

Hereford breeders from all over the Southwest either attended the funeral or sent messages of condolence to Mrs. Nance.

Armistice Day Is No Holiday

"Armistice Day will not be observed in Canyon," was the opinion of Chamber of Commerce officials who were asked Monday about plans for a holiday.

"When Memorial Day, May 30, was decided upon as a holiday, it was agreed that the business houses would not be requested to close for Armistice Day," stated one business man. Armistice is not observed in many towns as a result of the one day set aside as a Memorial to the dead of the nation.

Most business houses in Canyon will close for Thanksgiving, which comes two weeks following Armistice Day.

No Action Taken Veteran Petition

A petition was filed with the Commissioners Court last month by a group of local veterans asking for the appointment of a service officer in Randall County. The court heard both Roy Price, local petitioner, and Rhea Smith, who is serving the county one day per week.

Mr. Smith says that he had a list of 6,000 veterans who live in Randall county, 4,000 of whom are residents in the north part of the county and are served through the Amarillo office. So far in 1954 he has had 936 calls from the county, and has ample time to wait on the men who need help.

The court took no action.

Attendance at Park Jumped During October

Attendance at Palo Duro Canyon State Park is showing an increase this year over last, and Pete Cowart, park manager, says he expects the increase to continue if good weather holds.

"Autumn is the best time to see the park at its most colorful," Cowart said. "Foliage is disappearing, so that all formations in the earth are easily visible, and what leaves remain on trees are turning bright colors."

During October, attendance at the park jumped 33 1/2 per cent over the same month during 1953. A total of 1,724 cars drove into the park during October last year, compared with 2,300 this year. This brings the total since June to 18,131, about ten per cent above the same period in 1953. About one out of five of the cars coming to the park are from out of state, Cowart said.

Building Permits Total $43,950

Building permits in Canyon for the month of October climbed more than twice as high as they were in the month of September. Seven permits were issued at the City Hall during the month of October for a total of $43,950. City Hall records showed a total of two permits being issued in September for a total of $21,600.

The seven permits for the month of October were for two residences, two garages, a warehouse, an addition to a residence and an addition to a garage. The permits were sprinkled throughout the month with the first one being issued on October 4. The second permit was Oct. 13; third, Oct. 15; fourth, 25; fifth, 26; sixth, 28 and the last on the 29th.

With the beginning of cold weather usually slows up construction jobs in this vicinity. Although there wasn't much cold weather in October, there was enough to hint that winter was just around the corner. If November and December hold up as well in construction as October has, this will be an excellent winter for construction workers here.

Roy Bert Gollighugh died at 1:50 p. m. Sunday as the result of a car accident north of Canyon at the top of the hill where the highway divides.

Chamber of Commerce Gives Its Approval of New E-way to Canyon

The Board of Directors of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce has voted unanimously to endorse the expressway proposal to be voted on December 4th, in project and principle. "It is our opinion," said Charles Donnell, president, "that this proposal will do the greatest amount of good for the largest number of people."

"We are planning to make every effort to get the most information possible before every voter in Randall County, before December 4th, and will welcome requests to speak to groups to answer individual questions," Donnell continued.

The following paragraphs are the results of an interview with the state engineer.

It was pointed out that the 300 foot right of way necessary for the expressway is only 80 feet more than the minimum that would be required for a four lane divided highway. Where four lane divided highways are already built on less, it is because of state commitments to build the highway before standards were raised. The extra 80 feet costs only a little extra since most expensive improvements are close to the present highway.

Another very important point brought out was that there will be a crossing for vehicles at every intersecting county road between Canyon and Amarillo to allow convenient rural travel. All of these crossings except possibly at Western Avenue and Georgia Avenue and at the underpass north of Canyon will be on a level with the highway. The others will be the only overpasses until increased traffic demands more.

The center portion of the expressway is essentially a well constructed four lane highway with 50 feet of space between the north and south lanes to allow even a cattle truck ample clearance when it pulls between the lanes. Then on each side of this center portion with another ample dividing space between is a two way service highway, which is what makes an expressway out of a four lane divided highway.

These service roads are necessary because it is almost certain that the next few years will see this highway section solidly built up bringing with it the large amount of side traffic all along the Canyon-Amarillo highway. Most other highways between two towns will never have this side built up and have to only carry traffic between towns.

It was pointed out that no details have been settled on for the connection of the Hereford highway, north of Canyon to the expressway nor for the overpass at Georgia Avenue.

"We found the engineers of the state highway department very cooperative and eager to explain any thing not clear to us," said Charles Donnell.

"They consider their prime obligation to be to recommend and construct facilities to safely and quickly move traffic, and when we left, we felt definitely that the expressway will do the greatest amount of good for the largest number of people," concluded Donnell.

Dollar Day Has Varied Response

Dollar Day was a rather dry subject Saturday as a large autumn shopping crowd moved about the various stores on the square. The two businesses that had a well-planned Dollar Day program, Thompson's Hardware and Warren's, reported varied responses.

Clarence Eugene Thompson reported a slow day as far as their Dollar Day program was concerned, but he added that this was to be expected more or less in the hardware business at this particular time. He mentioned that they were in a mid-season or off season slump and that their Dollar Day specials were not the best for the season.

The report from Warren's was considerably better. Mr. Warren said they had a very good day. "We are well pleased with our Dollar Day results," he added. He said that the totals of the Dollar Day business were not in and that he could not tell exactly how much business had been done or what the increase was in percentage.

Mr. Warren also mentioned that October of this year had been a better month than October of last year. "Although this is too early to think of a trend for the month of November, so far it has been very good," Mr. Warren said Saturday. The one thing he did know about the month of November was that it was off to a good start and that is a great help.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

General Election Brings Out a Big Vote Throughout the State

The election last week was certainly in favor of the Democratic party.

There are a few observations, with no thought of taking away the victory which was shown by the vote.

In the first place, let it be remembered that the Democratic party was in power for 20 years before the personal popularity of General Eisenhower elevated him to the Presidency.

During the past 20 years, the administrations of Roosevelt and Truman saw to it that the government gave away vast sums of money. During the next two years, the Eisenhower administration has tried to apply the breaks and stop spending. The situation is simply this: Whoever heard of the people shooting Santa Claus?

The President announced weeks ago that he would not campaign. He did some campaigning during the final week of the campaign, but not enough to be effective. As we view the situation, there was no popular issue in any state which can be pinpointed as either a Democratic or Republican issue.

Every state had its own set of candidates, and each state had its own problems. Therefore, there was no central figure pointing the way in the campaign as was the case when Eisenhower was first elected.

No one can take away the victory of the Democrats who won, and likewise no Democrat can claim victory for his party excepting those who worked and voted for individuals who were victors.

So far the President has expressed no great disappointment in the election. He has assumed the role of an arbitrator. He can get along with individuals, and will get along with the Democrats who are elected to Congress. Let it be remembered that it was the Democrats who have put through most of the Eisenhower program, in spite of opposition of the Republicans.

You will notice that the Democrats are not especially anxious to gain control of the Senate. It throws a tremendous responsibility upon the party in power to gain control of both Houses of Congress while the President is from the opposing party.

We are mighty glad that both Sam Rayburn and Lyndon Johnson notified President Eisenhower weeks ago that if the Democratic party regained control of Congress that they would work with the President in his program.

We are extremely glad that all Democrats elected are from the conservative branch of the party. It is pretty certain that we shall have no more of this New Deal policy dictated to by Truman and his henchmen.

Congratulations to the Voters For Interest in the Election

While passing out bouquets on the election, why not stop and toss a few roses at the people of Texas. We voted this year, without the stimulation of a candidate for President.

Pete LaMaster is to be congratulated for having run a strong race against Congressman Walter Rogers. Rogers knew that LaMaster could not defeat him, so took the campaign sitting down.

The voters of Dallas did the unusual thing by electing a Republican Congressman.

Both of these races were on local problems. Rogers has four years of legislative experience, and this is not a Republican district in spite of the fact that the President carried it by a big majority two years ago.

And let it be known that Dallas is not a Republican District. The defeat of the Democrat was brought about by local issues rather than by state-wide issues. Let it be remembered that a few years ago the people of Dallas sent to Austin a State Representative Republican, turning down the Democratic nominee.

The greatest source of satisfaction is the manner in which the people of Texas voted on the 11 proposed constitutional amendments. Here in Randall county those who went to the polls did not overlook these amendments. They expressed their opinion. The same is more or less true of the people throughout the entire state.

$900,000 Bond Issue for Thirty Foot Right-of-way Lot of Money

We were impressed with an advertisement published last week in the Brownfield papers by a citizen who expressed opposition to a bond issue of $249,000 which was voted upon last week.

While the bond issue is not in proportion to the one proposed in Randall county for the purpose of buying a 300 foot right-of-way from Canyon to Amarillo, the questions asked seems to fit our local situation.

The questions as applied locally is, if the expressway is of such value to Canyon, will it make Umbarger and Happy as large as Canyon?

If the expressway is such a great advantage, will it increase the value of property proportionately in Canyon? For instance, will the building of the expressway increase the value of your property from $500 to $1000, which it will cost you to pay your share of the bond issue.

Is the expressway built for the benefit of the large towns, or for the small surrounding towns?

Will an expressway increase safety to the school children who are forced to cross such a highway? Will the entire citizenship of Randall county be benefitted for the building of the expressway?

These are some of the questions raised against the Brownfield bond issue in the Brownfield newspapers. They were applied locally in order that the taxpayers might think about them before going to the polls.

Unemployment is now less than 3,000,000. This is the lowest total of the year, and may be partly influenced by the fact that a number of kennel dogs are now in field training.

It's strange how otherwise intelligent men always fall for stories that the fish were biting better two hours ago, or yesterday, or just a little bit further out.

It is unfortunate that every citizen cannot be given a brief, impartial, and intelligent summary of the government's activities every day.

Most people want to look up to someone and that human quality is what the smart showman, and the smart politician, keep in mind.

Fate of Cpl. Batchelor Is of Interest to All West Texans

Perhaps it is because Cpl. Batchelor hails from West Texas that so many people have felt a personal interest in his welfare. Be that as it may, the court martial found him guilty of sneaking on his fellow soldiers and assessed the penalty as life imprisonment. This sentence has been reduced to 20 years in the pen.

We have tried to look at the penalty from an unbiased viewpoint. As a matter of record, we are thankful that we were not placed in the same position which confronted the Corporal in his long period of imprisonment in China. Trying to place ourselves in the same position, we wonder if we would have strength enough to withstand all of the punishment meted out by the Reds to their prisoners. We wonder if any citizen of Canyon who might have had the same temptation spread before him that the Reds gave the Corporal and would have been able to withstand.

Knowing human nature as we do, we doubt it. Frankly the Corporal deserved punishment, but the life sentence was out of line with American tradition as imposed in like cases.

Radar Control on Highways Is Needed For State of Texas

The State Highway Department sends out detailed information regarding the purchase of 1200 radar machines to hold down traffic in Texas.

On a recent trip into New Mexico we saw the results of radar control. A large sign told drivers to beware that the highway was under radar control. That was enough. Folks who thought they were in a hurry slowed their cars down to 60 miles per hour.

There is no argument about the results. When you see a sign that a highway is under patrol you wonder where the car is parked with the patrolman. Chances are you will see no man, and he has no means at his disposal to catch the guilty driver. But when you see a sign telling you that the highway is radar controlled, beware. You will drive past the gadget before you know it. And when you drive past the machine, it registers your speed.

Folks who think that 60 miles is too slow will soon find out that it is fast enough, after paying just one $10 fine.

Jack Stricklin Retires as Dean Of Panhandle Publishers

Jack Stricklin has sold his Brownfield Herald and retired as publisher. Jack has been publishing the paper since June, 1909, and was thereby the dean of publishers in Northwest Texas.

He carried a brief statement of the sale of the paper to the News which was started a few years ago in Brownfield, but did not state his plans for the future. He has been sick for several weeks, and this fact no doubt was the largest contributing factor toward the sale of his plant.

However, as Jack pointed out, from an economic standpoint, there was no room for two papers in Brownfield; any more than there is room for two papers in Tulsa, Hereford, or Canyon. It simply costs too much money for two papers in a small town to operate profitably. A poor newspaper is a "poor" newspaper in every sense of the word.

We have always enjoyed reading Old Jack's column of editorials and seeing his opinion on current questions of the day. He has always been a clear, concise thinker.

Comic Book Czar Is Appointed To Hold Down Crime in Nation

We have been wondering for a long while about the influence which will be exerted on the youth of the land through the medium of the comic books.

The publishers of these books have become incensed at the manner of increase in crime that a czar has been named to regulate these comics.

We shall see whether or not the kids will continue buying and reading comics—without the thrills offered by the offending crime pictures.

Perhaps the sale of these comic books will fall off when the moral forces start to cleaning up the books. Kids like the thrills that go with the comics. The morals of senior old fogies, like ourselves, do not suit the kids.

First Play at West Texas To Be Given Soon

Casting is underway for "Hay Fever," a three-act comedy by Noel Coward, to be presented Nov. 15 and 16 at West Texas State College, first major production of the year for the Branding Iron Theatre.

The frothy family farce will be the first BIT production directed by William A. Moore since his return to the WT campus after a year's leave of absence for study toward his doctorate at Yale University and the University of Michigan. Moore, who came to West Texas State in 1946, has brought Branding Iron Theatre and Summer Theatre dramatics wide recognition, drawing audiences from throughout the Panhandle area.

Coward's comedy demands a cast of nine, and Moore will present the play in the intimate theatre style, which has the audience surrounding the area of staging. Theatre-in-the-round, as the style is also called, brings action close to patrons and uses no formal stage area.

The production is sponsored by the Eta Iota cast of Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatics fraternity. Most of the cast, Moore said, will be members or pledges of the organization. Curtain-time for both performances will be 8:15 p. m.

Parts to be cast include Judith Bliss, an actress temporarily without a role; David Bliss, a novelist; Sorel Bliss and Simon Bliss, their son and daughter; Clara, the housekeeper; Sandy Tyrell, a young athlete; Myra Aurandel and Jackie Coryton, admirers of David Bliss.

County Auditor Attends Meeting

E. T. Cummings, Randall county auditor, attended the annual convention of the State Auditors' Association of Texas, at Beaumont.

Among the speakers were John H. Winters, director of the State Welfare Department, who spoke on some of the problems of social security as it pertains to counties, and to the broadened coverage of the social security program under the 1954 law. The State Welfare Department administers the program for the Internal Revenue Bureau.

New features discussed by Mr. Winters included the availability of the program to school teachers and other school employees, who may now be covered by Federal Social Security as well as State Teachers Retirement. Teachers and employees of a school who desire coverage may apply for an election on the subject. Mr. Winters also mentioned the new coverage of farmers beginning with 1955.

J. C. Davis, Assistant Attorney General, discussed some proposed changes in the law relating to county auditors and their appointment.

Moore Lynn, county auditor of Dallas county, discussed some points of internal control of county finances, as carried out in Dallas county. Interesting periods of questions and answers were part of the business meetings.

Guests of Mrs. Mettie E. Workman are her sister, Mrs. Erma Wilson of Pryor, Okla., and her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Workman of Bell, Calif., who are also visiting with his sister, Mrs. Ethel Mullins. Over the week-end Mr. and Mrs. Grady Pipkin of Eastland were also guests of Mrs. Workman.

The Enchanted Rock, about 22 miles north of Fredericksburg, is one of the natural wonders of the United States. Don Biggers' book, "German Pioneers of Texas," tells of the mountain:

It is a great globe-shaped, solid granite formation, the base of which is over a mile square. It is several hundred feet from the base to the top. The slope is so gradual that it is easily climbed except along parts of the north side where there are a number of rough places and perpendicular bluffs. Also along this side are a number of great fissures or caves. The full extent of some of these caves has never been explored. It is a place of endless wonders; and persons who have spent weeks exploring this great formation are constantly finding something new and wonderful. No picture or pen description of this giant rock can convey an adequate idea of its magnitude and mysteries.

Its history is enveloped in volumes of legend. The Indians believed the caves were inhabited by destroying demons and that supreme spirits guarded its summit. They believed that anyone venturing into the caves would be destroyed by the demons and that anyone venturing to the top of the mountain would be destroyed by the guarding spirits.

The Indians held the great rock mountain in reverential awe and never dared to profane it by explorations or investigations. They made sacrifice of captives to the spirits and demons of the Enchanted Rock.

All the canyons, mountain sides and creek valleys in that entire area have their legends of buried treasure; and in an effort to unearth these bags and bushels of gold, many an hour's hard labor and weeks of secret search have been spent. The rock stands as a monument to the dawn of creation and it smiles on the foolish, feverish efforts of men to dig hidden wealth from recesses where only myth and imagination planted it.

In more than one instance, the superstition of the Indian was the salvation of white men who, possessing no superstition, scaled the mountain to its top. The Indians, confident that the enraged spirits would destroy these desecrators would go on—and when the coast was clear, the white men would descend, says Mr. Biggers.

Dwight D. Eisenhower: "The persistently aggressive design of the Soviet Union and Communist China show no evidence of a genuine change."

Val Peterson, Federal Civil Defense Administrator: "Wind-borne radio-active material would make all areas vulnerable to hydrogen bomb blasts in the event of an enemy attack."

He who imitates an evil example generally goes beyond it; but he who imitates a good example generally falls short of it. —Francesco Guicciardini.

A constitution committee was named composed of Dr. Pies Harper, Mrs. Clyde Warwick, Mrs. Rena Bellah.

RHEUMATIC, ARTHRITIC VICTIMS PRAISE PAIN-RELIEVING POWER OF SAFE NEW "FILM-COATED" TABLET

Quickly Curbs Deep-Seated Pains Without Stomach Distress

If you are plagued by the misery of acute, dripping Arthritis, Rheumatic, or Neuritic pains, profit by the experience of others who now enjoy positive, blessed relief thanks to Ar-Pan-Ex—the exciting new laboratory discovery. Helps even most stubborn cases of deep-seated pain and stiffness.

A Missouri Lady Writes: "I have had terrible pain in my knees for over two years and couldn't walk without a cane. About two months ago a friend suggested Ar-Pan-Ex Tablets. I took a bottle and the pain left my legs and by the next day I was walking without any pain at all."

Do what Mrs. Creamer did. Enjoy a new lease on life with safe, powerful Ar-Pan-Ex, compounded exclusively for relief of deep-seated pain. Take this article to any good drug store and ASK FOR GENUINE AR-PAN-EX. If your druggist is out of it, he will be glad to order it for you. Professionally prepared.

Why Ar-Pan-Ex Helps: Ar-Pan-Ex, a formula recently perfected by a noted Eastern Scientist, contains seven active ingredients, scientifically "Film Coated" to prevent useless and distressing action in the stomach. The "Film Coating" dissolves in the small intestine where all pain-relieving medicine is then quickly released into the blood stream. Uric acid is reduced and long-lasting comfort is swiftly carried by the blood stream bringing fastest known relief to every pain-wracked muscle, joint and nerve.

Double Ring Ceremony Read For Raef-Hartman Wedding Rites

In a double ring ceremony Wednesday, October 27, in St. Mary's Church, Umbarger, Miss Barbara Ann Raef, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leuri L. Raef, became the bride of Bernard Paul Hartman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hartman, Sr. Father Andrew Marthaler witnessed the exchange of vows and offered the nuptial High Mass which followed. Mass servers were Donald Raef, brother of the bride, William Wiecek, Alfred Buecker, Robert Handing, and Gerald Beckman.

The High Altar held arrangements of white mums and bouquets of baby mums were used on the side altar. Family pews were marked with white ribbon bows.

Carl Hartman, Jr., was his brother's best man and Anthony Irlbeck, cousin of the groom, was groomsmen. Ushers were Elmer Hartman, another brother of the groom, and Fred Raef, cousin of the bride.

Miss Mary Janssen, organist, played the traditional processional and recessional wedding marches and accompanied St. Mary's senior choir as they sang the "Missa Clara" Mass. "O, Sanctissima" was sung at the offertory and "O, Little White Guest" was sung at Communion.

Miss Sylvia Raef, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Miss Helen Raef, another sister of the bride, and Miss Rita Wilhelm were bridesmaids. Miss Opal Raef, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. They wore identical gowns of nylon net over taffeta with matching headresses. They carried cascade bouquets of coral gladioli tied with streamers to contrast with their dresses. Little Miss Jo Ann Haschke, cousin of the groom, was flower girl and Ronald Haschke, also a cousin of the groom, was ringbearer. They were both dressed in white and Jo Ann carried a bouquet of white baby mums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white lace over bridal satin. The gown, designed by the bride, was fashioned with a basque waist with long sleeves coming to a point over the wrists and with a Peter Pan collar of lace edged with tulle. The scalloped lace on the skirt was parted in front and in back to reveal the satin underneath. The gown buttoned in the back with tiny satin covered buttons. Her two tiered veil of illusion was attached to a scalloped tiara of lace, adorned with tiny pearls surrounded by sequins. Her chapel length, detachable train was scalloped lace over tulle. She carried a crescent shaped arrangement of white stephanotis, centered with a white orchid. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom, and pearl earrings.

For something old, she wore her paternal grandmother's wedding band; for something new her attire; for something borrowed her mother's pearl earrings; and something blue, a tiny blue ribbon tied in her bouquet.

A statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary was presented to the bride by Misses Theresa Batenhorst and Marcella Prillas from the Children of Mary of which both bride and groom were members.

Following the ceremony, a breakfast was served in the Carl Hartman, Jr., home with Mesdames Carl Hartman, Jr., and Elmer Hartman as hostesses. The dinner was served in St. Mary's Hall.

At the reception which was held in the home of the bride, the gifts were opened from a table laid with a hand crocheted cloth made by Mrs. E. W. Raef, aunt of the bride.

The three tiered wedding cake, topped with miniature bride and groom, was cut and served by Mrs. Ben Koch after the bride and groom had cut the first piece. Mrs. Koch had baked and decorated the cake.

In the evening, the dance was in St. Mary's Hall.

After a trip to New Mexico the couple will live in Umbarger. For going away the bride wore a light brown two piece suit with dark brown accessories and a white or, child corsage.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Raef chose a gray dress with black accessories and a white carnation corsage. The groom's mother chose a blue faille dress with black accessories and a white carnation corsage.

The bride is a '54 graduate of Umbarger High School. The groom is a graduate of Price College and is engaged in farming with his father.

Assisting with the dinner and reception were Mesdames Bill Bauer, Frank Begert, Geo. Brockman, Rudolph Friemel, Vincent Friemel, Charles Beckman, and Misses Margaret Friemel, Romilda Gerber, Bernice Grabber, Estella Friemel, Anna Buecker, Betty Hoffman and Mary Fischbacher.

Out of town relatives attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Haschke and Fern Hartman from Nebraska, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Raef and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Raef and daughter and Mrs. Leo Raef of St. Francis, Mrs. E. W. Raef and family, Mrs. Leonard Raef and Mrs. John Raef from Amarillo.

"I taught Mother how to cook on our ELECTRIC RANGE!"

says Linda, 10 year old daughter of S/Sgt. and Mrs. Frank P. Stinchfield 1207 W. 7th, Roswell, New Mexico

"Since I attended the Girl Scout Cooking Class I helped convince Mother that we needed an electric range. The feature that I like best is the broiler, because you can fix a meal in a hurry. I also like the timer on our new range because it is the only clock that we can cook by. All the other clocks in our house tell a different time."

"Both Mother and Daddy are good cooks. I have shown Mother how to use lots of the features on our electric range. The thing she likes best about it is the broiler. She works part time so the automatic timer has been a big help to her and, of course, I showed her how to use it. I help Daddy make some of the desserts and his favorite recipe is doughnuts in the deep-well. Daddy likes the even heat that you can get on this range."

"I am working on my Girl Scout Cooking Badge and I do a lot of practicing at home. I have cooked before but this is the first time I have cooked on an electric range. It sure is lots of fun."

SEE YOUR REDDY KILOWATT ELECTRIC APPLIANCE DEALER

About 360 days of the year we gad with the best of 'em. We enjoy activities, like people. All in all, we belong to the group of females cartoonists earn a living making caricatures of... cheerful and bustling; a Miss Mary Poppins hat set squarely on the head; a calendar full of small duties and appointments; reminding folks of a ship at full sail.

Generally, that's true. But once in awhile, we confess to a hermit-like desire to go home, pull the doorbell and street address in after us; to do nothing worthwhile, maybe nothing at all.

And that might be possible, if it weren't for the telephone.

Now telephones, like food, friends, cars and shelter, are practically indispensable in our present pattern of living. But talk about invasion of privacy! Television, eager reporters, glass houses, door-to-door salesmen, poor relations and friendly neighbors, all rolled into one, can't touch the telephone on that score.

We have one acquaintance who has discovered she can always get us early in the morning. So about twice a week, just as we serve the eggs and toast, the telephone rings. Fifteen minutes later, we get back to cold breakfast, a late start on the morning take-off, and a generally upset attitude toward facing the day.

Then there's the gentleman who has found he can nail the spouse late at night. On the rare occasions when we go to bed early from sheer exhaustion, the urgent b-r-r-r of the telephone bell invariably pulls us out of a deep sleep with the panicky feeling that there's been a terrible accident that has wiped out all our next-of-kin.

We like our telephone. We have to have it. But, please, couldn't we have open and closed season on invasion of privacy?

Members of the Science Club at Canyon High School were the first customers for a new concession at Palo Duro Canyon State Park last week, taking Geiger counters out to "prospect" for uranium.

Mrs. Joseph Findley, science teacher, accompanied the group on a trial run with the instruments that record clicks in ear phones when radioactive minerals are found. Pete Cowart, park manager, said he hopes the counters will offer everyone an opportunity to take a chance at prospecting without the necessity for going to out-of-the-way places and investing in expensive equipment.

Cowart said the concession at Palo Duro is the first of its kind in Texas, probably in the whole United States. If it succeeds, he said it might prove the forerunner for similar projects in other likely tourist centers.

Naturally, everyone asks Cowart whether there is uranium in the Palo Duro. He replies, "If I knew for certain where there was a deposit of uranium in this canyon, I wouldn't be standing here renting Geiger counters!"

But he adds that no one knows for certain where uranium will or will not be found. Even personnel of the Atomic Energy Commission will not say definitely what type of earth deposits are most likely to contain uranium. They say there have been too many new discoveries, the whole study is so new, that they can only say "uranium is where you find it."

It is entirely possible that someone may find a deposit of uranium within Palo Duro Canyon, Cowart says. He bases that statement on the booklet, "Prospecting for Uranium," published by the U. S. Government Printing Office for the AEC and the U. S. Geological Survey. In that booklet, it is explained that there are three types of deposits which can contain radioactive minerals, all three of which are found in Palo Duro. These are sandstones, shales and phosphates. Those represent what are known as "sedimentary" rocks, and their uranium content is lower usually than "vein" deposits. Vein deposits may be found in any kind of rocks, Cowart says the only way to discover whether there are any vein deposits in Palo Duro Canyon is to go out with a Geiger counter and test for them.

Palo Duro has not been prospected for uranium except by an occasional visitor with a Geiger counter. Amateurs have as good a chance as anybody to hit on the spots, if any, that contain uranium.

The State of Texas owns minerals in Palo Duro Canyon State Park, and anyone who finds uranium in the park will have to make his own arrangements to lease the area containing his "treasure" ore, Cowart said. Such leases can be made through the Texas State Parks Board in Austin.

As Cowart outlines it, the amateur will take out a Geiger counter, listen for clicks, notice the spots where he hears an extremely high number of clicks each minute. Then he decides which rocks cause the uproar in his earphones.

Then the prospector should get a good sample of the rocks he thinks are radioactive, at least a pound of the stuff. He can send that sample to the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission in Denver, Colo., for free assay. If the assay shows it would be profitable to mine the ore, the prospector arranges his lease.

"It only takes a 6-inch vein of some uranium ores to make millions of dollars," Cowart said. "And anyone is eligible for a $10,000 bonus from the AEC if they find as much as 20 short tons of ore assaying 20 per cent uranium. That's rich ore, though. But even ore assaying as little as one-tenth of 1 per cent uranium can be sold to the AEC at a guaranteed minimum price."

The Geiger counters rented at the park are the simplest made, but not the least expensive. They are small enough to fit in a jacket pocket. They rent for five dollars a day.

Everyone renting one of the counters received a sheet of instructions on how to use a Geiger counter and another sheet of tips on where to look in Palo Duro.

Palo Duro Canyon State Park is one of three state parks in Texas which charge admission. This is because the state is still paying original land owners for land within the park. The state's share of proceeds from the Geiger counter concession will help to pay that debt.

Members of the Science Club, who found ores that affected the Geiger counters enough to make them start more laboratory tests on the rocks, were Ralph Miller, Jon Cross, Barry Clark, George Alexander, Wilford Taylor, III, Bernye Bob Woodward, Carolyn Measamer, Bobby Samuelson, Brian Tolliver, Debra McDonald, Frances Boyd, Judy Newman and Orville Marshall.

Lions Club Sees Expressway Film

Members of the Lions Club saw a film, "Freeways, Can We Afford Them?" at their regular luncheon last Wednesday. The program was in charge of Rex Reeves. Special guests were officials of the State Highway Department, who were introduced by Roy Joe Stevens.

The film showed the freeways, or expressways, in Texas and the effect on transportation and valuation of adjoining property and secondary property around the expressways. The picture was produced by the Good Roads Association of Texas.

At the conclusion of the film, questions were addressed to Guy Lott of Amarillo, state district engineer, who explained the details of the Canyon-Amarillo Expressway in so far as the highway department has planned at this time. He stressed that farm-to-market roads do not affect the expressway in any way, and that farmers will have access to the highway at every intersecting section line.

Visitors were: Dudley Bayne, Jack Jennings, Delbert Lowes, Paul Lindsey, E. M. Myers, Roy Joe Stevens, Bud Parker, Truett Hull of Canyon; James Craighead and Mr. Teague, Scout executive, of Amarillo and Randall county; and Ray Green, Lion of the Month.

NEWS LETTER

FROM CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS
OF THE 18TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT

Thanks to the People of the 18th:

Words are, of course, wholly inadequate to express my deep feeling of gratitude to the fine people of the 18th Congressional District of Texas. I wish it were humanly possible for me to grasp the hand of each of you and to say "Thank You" for this great honor that you have again bestowed upon me.

I deeply regret that I had to return to Washington immediately after the election, but one of my children had suffered an accident just before the election, in which he almost lost an eye. Thanks to Almighty God and the child's wonderful mother, the eye was saved, and the boy is progressing nicely.

What Does the Election Mean?

The columnists and commentators who were trying to predict the outcome of the election are now busy trying to predict the results of the outcome of the election. The truth is that the American people have spoken in a democratic form, and they will expect this government to be kept in balance. I feel that the first session of the 84th Congress will prove to be a most stabilizing influence. It will prove definitely that true statesmanship still exists.

Much has been said about the dynamic program of the President, but no one seems to have taken time to say just what the program is, or what laws he has in mind. In order to determine whether or not the program is dynamic, we must first find out what the program consists of.

If it consists of proposals that will prevent the exploitation of one segment of our economy by another, proposals that can and will result in trimming government expenditures, proposals that will definitely and effectively deal with communist and fascist transgressions in or on our government, ment, proposals that will serve to strengthen this nation's position of world leadership and similar proposals, he can expect to have the full backing of the many members of Congress with whom I am personally acquainted.

However, on the other hand, if attempts are made by some power seeking groups and individuals to have enacted into laws proposals that will grant favoritism, concessions and the right of exploitation to a select few, it is my prediction that the cooperation of the majority of the members will not be forthcoming, certainly it should not be.

Turkey Shoot Will Take Place at WT

Sharpshooting Dan'l Boones and Annie Oakleys of this area may win their Thanksgiving turkey early this year by entering the first annual turkey shoot at West Texas State College. The shoot is slated Nov. 19 and 20 in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps unit's rifle range.

Six dressed turkeys will be awarded to the three highest scoring men and three high women. The range will be open for firing from 1 until 9 p. m. Nov. 19, and 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. Nov. 20. The shoot is sponsored by the ROTC Rifle Team, and funds will go for equipment for the team. Charge will be 75 cents for men and 50 cents for women for five targets.

Canyon businessmen have donated the six turkeys, each to weigh from eight to ten pounds. The ROTC unit will furnish rifles and ammunition, although a contestant may use his own .22 caliber rifle, if he does not use telescopic sights. Scores will be posted, and turkeys will be awarded after the final shooting.

CALLED TO HOPEVILLE

Tuesday morning E. C. Clark was called to Hopeville, Okla., to the bedside of his sister, Mrs. Bill Balding, who is in serious condition following a car accident in which her husband was killed instantly.

Queen Quirks in the News

King Tribhubana, the King of Nepal, the little kingdom adjoining northern India, plans a visit to the United States with both of his wives. This is reported to have caused some headaches in the State Department in view of Section 212 of the 1952 Immigration Act, which provides for exclusion of aliens who are polygamists, or who practice polygamy or advocate the practice of polygamy.

The headache was cured when it was found that the Attorney General may admit any persons otherwise inadmissible, when he believes that it is in the national interest to admit them.

Reports have it that West Germany's Chancellor Adenauer really made a hit. Although he could not speak our language, he knew how to shake hands in it. Columnist George Dixon reports that when the National Press Club's Italian-Swiss chef, Alphonse Zappelloni, came out of the kitchen to signal the waiters, the Chancellor gave him a firm handshake. There is nothing as catching as good fellowship.

Queen Mother of England

The Queen Mother of England arrived in town and is a guest at the White House. On Tuesday, the British Embassy was the scene of a reception in her honor. Mrs. Rogers and I will have the pleasure of attending, and I will try to give you the highlights of the affair later on. She is a very gracious person of whom England is justly proud.

Around the Town...

(By Mrs. Clyde W. Warwick)

In December of 1950 Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Bennett purchased a home in Canyon at 2423 Seventh Ave., moving to Canyon in January, 1951. They came here from their ranch 13 miles out of Des Moines, N. M., where they had spent their summers for the last 21 years. Mr. Bennett had suffered a heart attack and had asthma so bad they were forced to retire and move to a lower altitude.

On October 21 they celebrated their 80th birthdays. They were both born on Oct. 21, 1874, and said they had never found another married couple who were born on the same day and in the same year.

Mrs. Bennett was born in Rocky Comfort County, Arkansas. Her father died when she was six months old and her mother died when she was 18, so she came to Childress County, Texas, in 1891. They will have been married 56 years this November.

Mr. Bennett was born in Barbour County, West Virginia, and moved to Denton County, Texas, with his parents in 1880, when he was six years old, moving to Childress County in 1886. It was in Childress County these two met and later married on Nov. 14, 1898. They will have been married 56 years this November.

Mr. Bennett worked on several ranches and while he was working on the XIT ranch in Lamb County in 1895 he said he could ride all the way to Amarillo and open only two gates. He couldn't see much future in working for someone else and he wanted to marry and, he said, "Mrs. Bennett wouldn't marry him unless he came to the Panhandle and filed on some land." At that time he could file on four sections, so he came out to Carson County and filed on four sections about 24 miles from Panhandle. He filed on this land on their birthday, Oct. 21, 1898, returning to Childress County he and Miss Annie Wayland were married. For their honeymoon they drove in a covered wagon from Childress to their ranch, taking five days for the trip. Mr. Bennett had built a dug-out on Antelope Creek and they lived in it for eight years, until they could build them a nicer home.

They built their dug-out down in the "breaks" and dug a well, finding water at 11 feet. The well was close to the house, "about as close as the Jarrett's house," Mrs. Bennett said.

They paid $1 an acre for their four sections and had 40 years to pay for it at three per cent interest which amounted to $75 a year, Mrs. Bennett said. "That $75 was mighty hard to get the first years." Later they purchased 2 1/2 sections adjoining theirs.

They lived on this ranch for 28 years where seven children were born to them. Four of whom are living and they are: Mrs. Frank Metcalf of Panhandle, Clyde Bennett of Panhandle, Milton Bennett of Des Moines, N. M., who manages his ranch which runs up to the extinct volcano Mt. Capaulin, and manages the Bennett's ranch, and Mrs. C. W. Rogers of Liberal, Kans.

They have 12 grandchildren. Their granddaughter, Beverly Anne Bennett, 16 years old, who lives with her parents at Des Moines, N. M., won a national contest this spring with her essay: "Why I Would Like to Visit the U. N.," and was awarded an all-expense paid three weeks trip to New York to see the U. N. building. The trip included Philadelphia, Canada, and a short stop for a tour of all cities they passed through both going and coming. There were only 40 of these prizes given in the U. S.

Mrs. Bennett said that for the first few years after they came to the Plains about all they had to eat was beans, sour dough biscuits and plum butter. There were plenty of plums in the "breaks" and she made plum butter from these. They did not move their cows to the Plains until in May, but after the cows came they always had plenty of milk and butter. They brought 12 chickens with them which Mr. Bennett's parents had given them and Mr. Bennett traded one of their horses for a large 500 lb. hog which furnished their meat for a year. They put some of this pork down in salt and made sausage with some of it. Mrs. Bennett would make butter-milk pies and molasses pies.

They brought two saddle horses with them in addition to the two horses on the wagon. They did a little farming but mostly ran cattle. Mr. Bennett said that farming then was "mighty hard work."

Their nearest neighbor was 3 1/2 miles away, but they rode back and forth to visit. "Mostly, we rode horseback, as it was more fun to ride the horses than to drive the team to the wagon."

Mrs. Bennett is a member of the Catholic Church and she said they would drive 24 miles to church. She is a member of the Catholic Church in Canyon now and is as regular in attendance as their health will permit.

In 1926 they moved to Amarillo, but they didn't like living in a city. In that same year they found gas on their land and now have five gas wells. In 1930 they purchased the Travacere Ranch in New Mexico, Travacere being Spanish for The Park, and spent their time between this ranch and the one in Carson County, until four years ago when Mr. Bennett's health forced them to retire.

It was the day before Halloween

MR. AND MRS. A. F. BENNETT

when I first called on Mrs. Bennett. Mr. Bennett was not at home and she was busy baking cookies for "Trick or Treat." She had apples, stuck candy and her cookies all ready for the children when they came, and was a little worried for fear she didn't have enough to make the children happy.

In Mr. and Mrs. Bennett is found the warm friendship and hospitality, the ready wit and humor for which the pioneer of the Panhandle was famous.

The Bennetts are small in stature, their combined weight when they married was only 200 pounds and is only two pounds over that now. Mrs. Bennett is only four feet, ten inches tall. She took the prize at The Primrose Party for Pioneer at Amarillo for being the smallest pioneer present and as I looked at her there came to my mind the broadcasts of the football games when they say, "190 or 210 pounds bucking the line," here was only 88 pounds of femininity "bucking" the bald prairie, playing the game, but the game she played was life. Mr. Bennett is only five feet, eight inches tall.

Though the frontier took its toll of these two, claiming the lives of three of their seven children; a son, 21 years old, killed by a fall from his horse; a son, two years, was killed by a gate; a daughter born dead; but no toll or hardship could take from them their zest for ample, vigorous living.

"They say civilization took its biggest step forward with the discovery of the wheel, but civilization owes a greater debt than can ever be paid to the hardy, stout-hearted pioneer like these two, who PUSHED and PULLED that wheel across the frontiers.

"Life is just for those who love it. Those who fear it, cannot live it. Keep your heart young to receive it. Life is never tired of giving."

Halloween, the name applied to the evening of October 31, is believed to have originated among the ancient Druids, who believed that on that evening Saman, the lord of the dead, called forth hosts of evil spirits. The Celts also believed that the spirits of the dead revisited their earthly homes on that evening. Today Halloween is a "kid's" celebration, and for that reason Mrs. Arthur Mason in a PTA meeting said she'd like to see Halloween fall on the last Friday in October rather than on a fixed date as it does now. She feels that it would be better to have the occasion come on Friday rather than on a school night or on a Sunday as it did this year.

Mrs. Isabelle Wagner of Elmhurst, Texas, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. J. L. Prichard, while Mrs. Beulah Heffner and her sister, Mrs. A. L. Huff, of Amarillo visited their brother and family. Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Prichard, and Mrs. Heffner's son, J. L. Heffner, at Roy and Mosquero, N. M.

A letter from Emma Jeane McClesky, who is proofreader for The Herald Plainview, says: "How well I remember Mrs. Key whom you wrote about in your column. She made my graduation dress in 1915, when I received my 'diploma' from the Normal School. I just loved Mrs. Key and can see that white graduation dress now. I haven't seen her in a long while but I still love her. Bless her memory."

Miss McClesky taught for a number of years in Canyon, going from Canyon to Plainview and after retiring from teaching, going to The Herald.

In addition there are 45 pupils in the fifth and sixth grades and between 47 and 50 in the seventh and eighth grades studying beginners band.

The band gives two concerts each year to which the public is invited. In addition to this they have played at every football game for the last two years. Last year for the first time they played at some of the basketball games and this year expect to play at all of the basketball games. They play at Homecoming, at all pep rallies, and are always glad to furnish music whenever they are asked.

The high school has football in the fall, basketball in the winter, but "The Band Plays On" the full nine months of school.

No other subject given for credit has the demands made on it for public service that the band has. Music is welcome on all occasions and last year the Canyon High School Band furnished music for 30 entertainments. Since there are only 36 weeks of school you can readily see how much this organization of young people contributes.

The election is over; many a good man was elected and many a good man was defeated. At least two were elected who should have been defeated, had we followed our Democratic principles. If a man of 70 years is no longer capable of teaching our youth; filling the pulpits of our churches, is a man past 70 capable of leading our country?

Whooping Cough Spreads in State This Time of Year

AUSTIN: This is the time of the year that usually marks an increase in the incidence of whooping cough. Dr. Henry A. Holle, State Health Officer, said today that strenuous efforts should be made to control the spread of this debilitating childhood disease.

"The only source from which whooping cough may be contacted is another case of whooping cough, and isolation of cases must be universally practiced to prevent its spread," Dr. Holle stated.

"The infectious agent or germ of whooping cough is transmitted by droplets expelled in coughing, sneezing, or speaking," he declared. "The discharges from the nose and throat are dangerous; the need for early recognition and careful isolation of whooping cough is obvious."

The first sign of this disease is usually a dry cough, which persists night and day and tends to become increasingly severe. The disease is fully developed when vomiting of food and whooping accompany the paroxysm of cough. Dr. Holle stressed the fact that children who have whooping cough should not attend school or come in contact with other children, until three weeks after the appearance of typical signs of the disease.

"Prevention and control of whooping cough, especially among infants and small children, may be accomplished through use of approved vaccine and convalescent serum," Dr. Holle asserted, "and it is important that such measures be taken to protect them. Neglecting to do so may seriously impair the child's health."

A Tribute To Our Insurance Men

The man who "writes you up" for insurance is one of the most human of all salesmen. He deals in human nature. He must keep a myriad of facts and figures at his finger tips. He must be persistent, persuasive and personable. The sincere Insurance Man offers you something you owe to yourself and your family. He insures your life, with ample protection for your loved ones. He insures your home, your car, your personal possessions. He sells accident insurance and, oftentimes, special kinds of protection covering other personal or business assets. You're doing yourself, not him, a favor when you buy well-planned insurance. Consider him one of your most needed friends!

Carelessness

Carelessness is one of the most unattractive characteristics that a person have. It is an ever-present enemy to each and everyone of us. This enemy is the cause of most of the foolish and unnecessary mistakes which occur every day.

In CHS there are some students who are careless about hanging their coats in the lockers, leaving articles of clothing in the rest rooms, leaving books in the halls, and throwing paper on the floor. It is necessary to have the cooperation of each and everyone to keep our school in good repair and in tidy condition at all times.

We should take a personal pride and interest in the school that has been provided for us by following these few simple suggestions: Paper should be placed in waste baskets provided inside the building. During the noon hour papers and rubbish should be placed in containers which are accessible for our use.

Care should be taken to prevent unnecessary marks on walls, school desks, and other furniture. Chewing gum should be placed in the waste baskets, never carelessly stick it on desks, tables or chairs. Remember that the flowers, grass, and shrubbery are for our pleasure and enjoyment. Let's not mar their beauty by our careless actions!

Student of the Week

R. A. Burgess, Canyon High's powerful, 172-pound fullback, has proved himself to be one of the most potent class AA grid players of the Panhandle.

As a result of his fine showing against Perryton last week, he was named the Player of the Week by the Amarillo Daily News. So far R. A. has a record of 12 touchdowns for the season.

It is more than natural that R. A.'s ambition is to play college football and that football and basketball are his favorite sports. "Butch," as he is known to his friends, plans to enter the coaching profession at West Texas State College. He has participated in such activities as football, basketball, track, the Student Faculty Congress, and FFA.

Home-Ec. On Television Show

CLOTHING CAREERS in the field of Home Economics are perhaps the dreams of Nancy Adcock, seated, and Rhea June Ford, standing, as they view stars of the future in the fields of textiles, designing, art directors, teaching, retailing, and homemaking. These homemaking III girls are now advanced enough in the field of homemaking that they are able to look into the future for possible careers in that field. Recently 11 of these girls displayed their talent before the Panhandle on Cotton John's TV program.

The Homemaking III girls modeled the garments they made in classes under the guidance of Mrs. Clara B. Long on Cotton John's Farm and Home TV program Saturday, Nov. 6.

Those on the program were: Nancy Tomlinson, June Davis, Nancy Root, Ruth Ann Bolton, Anna Marie Barker, Janis Wright, Wanda Rogers, Ann Moore, Helene Meyer, Jeanine Thomas, and Diane Prichard. June Davis acted as commentator of the style show.

Transportation was provided by Mrs. F. A. Thomas, Mrs. Floyd Tomlinson, Mrs. E. H. Wright, Mrs. Hud Prichard, Mrs. Clyde Davis, Mrs. Floyd Moore, and Mrs. Clara B. Long.

The success of this program determines the chances that other homemaking classes have of being on this program.

Driver Education Adds Activities

Several new activities have been included in the driver education curriculum this year. Among them are visitations, visual aid by use of safety films, and method demonstrations.

Already the CHS students enrolled in this course have visited the officials of the city court. Demonstrations for impressing the dangers of excess speed have also been shown; and safety films have been acquired to assist in class instruction.

Driver education is a course open to all high school students who do not have a driver's license. The purposes of these driver education courses are to teach the students driver safety and courtesy, as well as the best methods of skillful driving.

Recently, Stevenson Pontiac of Canyon furnished a new challenge to the driver education students to do their very best by donating a handsome new '55 model Pontiac to the school for use in driver education classes. This car is a striking two-tone black and gray model with V-8 motor, dual brake control, tubeless tires, and standard shifting system.

Students enrolled in driver education are: Laura Kinney, Martha and Arthur Harding, Betty Mariner, Mary Ann Irbeek, and Bruce Buchanan. Mr. Sidney Burgess is the CHS driver education instructor.

Intramurals

In the boys division juniors Garland Ruthart and Jack Pruett have entered the semi-finals in horse shoe pitching here at CHS Friday, Nov. 5.

Mac Boswell and Dana Wilbanks, freshmen, will play against George Alexander and Alton Darst, sophomores, to determine the contestants for the quarter-finals. The winners of this match will challenge freshmen Arthur Pruett and Leonard Miller, who are in the quarter-finals.

Following the quarter-finals will be the championship bout for first place in the boys division horse shoe pitching tournament.

FHA Observes National Week

Canyon FHA girls will participate in National FHA Week, during the week of Nov. 7-13, with a wide and varied program.

Beginning on Sunday morning, the entire FHA chapter will be guests of the First Baptist Church for a devotional service.

Monday is friendship day; to commemorate this, red roses, the national FHA flower, will be presented to the school for the students' enjoyment. The emblem service, a program explaining the national FHA emblem, will be presented to the Rotarians on Tuesday. Wednesday, "No Gripe Day," all gripes are prohibited. FHA members will wear smiling lips until they are caught griping, then the lips will be inverted.

On Thursday, new members will be initiated and a trial for the habitual gripers will be staged at the FHA meeting. To do a good deed for someone is every FHA'er's goal on Friday. To set aside money for a rose bush, which will be purchased and planted in the spring is an additional goal for Friday.

To complete the week's activities all girls will do an unsuspected job for a member of her family.

FHA girls who are in charge of these activities are: Rhea June Ford, Ann Moore, Nelda Coffee, Ruth Ann Bolton, Ellen Johnson, Nancy Adcock, Janet Taylor, and Judy Newman.

Troubadours Sing Gay Folk Songs

Shrieks of laughter pounded to the ceiling when Mrs. Bajan mingled within the student body to serenade two astonished boys in an unusually lively assembly Nov. 2, presented by the Gypsy Troubadours, Alla and W. Bajan.

Mr. and Mrs. Bajan have personalities as vivid as the program they present. The couple have been giving school programs for eight years, including ones in Korea, and they feel that "it is wonderful work; we get such inspiration from it... it is just inexpressible how it makes us feel."

The troubadours are both Ukranians. Alla Bajan was born in Iran and W. Bajan in Galicia. Their travels have extended to every part of the world. They both speak seven languages and as a result possess an indistinguishable accent. The brilliantly colorful costumes of the gypsy troubadours were modernized and made by Alla Bajan for glamour and increased interest.

The Bajans have organized a spirited program of continental folk music that has as a special feature the "humanettes," a delightful puppet act in which the head and hands of the puppets are the live ones of Mr. and Mrs. Bajan.

In accompaniment to the guitar, the balalaika and the tambourine, the troubadours sing and dance the rhythmic folk sounds in seven different languages. Sometimes Mr. and Mrs. Bajan present as many as four programs a day—semi-classical to senior high school, children's programs, and classical programs to service clubs.

CHS Observes Education Week

The schools of Canyon extend a special invitation to the public to visit classrooms and see the schools in action during American Education Week, Nov. 7-13.

American Education Week has been observed annually since 1921, when it was established by joint action of the National Education Association and American Legion. American Education Week is to inform the public of the accomplishments and needs of the public schools.

The central theme of Education Week is "Good Schools Are Your Responsibility," in effect, a lesson assignment for every citizen. Also, some of the daily topics for Education Week this year emphasize everyone's personal responsibility for good schools.

The topics are: "Ideals to Live By," "Teachers for Tomorrow," "Investments in Good Schools," "Working Together for Good Schools," "Effective Citizenship," "Teaching the Fundamentals Today," and "How Good Are Your Schools?"

American Education Week is an appropriate time to re-examine the educational program of our community.

Imitation is the sincerest of flattery. —C. C. Colton.

School Buildings Progress Rapidly

Work on the new elementary school building and the high school annex is progressing rapidly and will reach final completion by the Christmas holidays, or shortly thereafter.

Since the previous progress report published in early September, the grade school roof has been completed, all windows and doors, including the front entrance, have been installed and the heating system has been partially completed.

Pavement in front of the grade schools on Tenth and Twelfth Streets has also been previously completed.

Interior plaster work is being finished this week. Inside painting and installation of built-in features, such as lockers and chalk boards, will be the program of work for the coming weeks.

The high school annex, consisting of the homemaking department, the science laboratory, and the gymnasium and dressing rooms, is rapidly taking shape and will be ready for occupancy in the near future.

Bufs Whipped By Trinity 19-7

The Buffaloes lost again at San Antonio Saturday night, falling to the Trinity Tigers 19-7. The Presbyterian team continues as an unbeaten team this season in seven starts.

West Texas State, an offensive-minded team in its first six games, stalled and sputtered on every thrust against the bigger Trinity team with the exception of a last quarter touchdown.

The Buffaloes did not penetrate the Trinity 30-yard line until the last five minutes of the game.

It was 19-0 in favor of the Tigers when Tommy Powell, West Texas center, intercepted a pass on his 31-yard line and ran it back to the Trinity eight.

On the next play, Lindley Davis, freshman halfback, drove through center for five. Davis came back for one more and Joe Walden went off right tackle for the last two yards.

Kenneth Clapp kicked the extra point for the last of the West Texas scoring. Only four minutes and 15 seconds remained in the game.

That was the only serious Buffalo threat and Trinity had things under control most of the time.

The Buffalo Band accompanied the team, putting on an attractive half time performance.

A large group of students will accompany the team to the Hardin-Simmons Saturday where the Buffs will play at 8 o'clock at night. The season will be ended at El Paso against Texas Western on Thanksgiving Day.

Latest Rumors From Political Front of Nation

President Eisenhower already is revising his ideas about stepping out in 1956. The president's dander is up as a result of the loss of an election, and Republican Party leaders hope to keep it that way.

Four out of ten members of the Eisenhower Cabinet come from states that voted Democratic this year. Douglas McKay, of Oregon; Arthur Summerfield and Charles E. Wilson, of Michigan; and Herbert Brownell, of New York, all came out on the short end of the 1954 political deal.

Interior Secretary McKay may give way to another Westerner now that the voters of Oregon have registered disapproval of present policies related to natural resources. Secretary McKay campaigned actively for defeated Senator Guy Cordon.

Homer Ferguson, who now is to become a lame-duck Senator from Michigan, is likely to be named Attorney General in case President Eisenhower decides to elevate Herbert Brownell to the vacant Justiceship on the Supreme Court.

Ezra Benson, Farm Secretary, who was supposed to enter the political doghouse after the 1954 election, turned out to be the political hero of the Republican Party. Secretary Benson, almost singlehandedly, is credited with holding the farm belt for the Republicans at a time when some of the biggest names in the party were taking a shellacking elsewhere. Mr. Benson's Cabinet tenure is assured.

Mr. Eisenhower is to be faced with strong suggestions from Republican leaders that he recast the White House staff. Attitudes of this staff, and political strategy shaped by it, are blamed by many Republicans in Congress for loss of the election.

Sam Rayburn, who will be House Speaker, feels that President Eisenhower shares responsibility for Republican attacks charging Democrats with favoring Reds. Mr. Rayburn is not to be inclined, if he can help it, to make life easier for the President in the next two years.

Richard Nixon, Vice President, will face the task of presiding over a politically hostile Senate. Mr. Nixon is to have plenty of time to do outside jobs for the President now that Democrats will direct the business of Congress.

Thomas Dewey, New York's Governor, will fade definitely into the political limbo as a result of Republican loss of the New York Governorship. Any chance that Mr. Dewey might later on try to re-enter the political scene is regarded as remote.

Wayne Morse, Oregon Senator, is credited by Democrats with a real part in defeat of two Republican Senators—Guy Cordon, in Oregon, and Homer Ferguson, in Michigan. Senator Morse, an independent, is being promised membership on committees from which Republicans removed him, and he may be given back his Senate seniority.

High officers in the U. S. Marine Corps are coming to the view that the Chief of Naval Operations, by indirect action, is trying to reduce the prestige and power of the Commandant of the Corps below the status called for by statute. The Commandant, under law, is an equal of the Staff Chiefs of Army, Navy and Air Force on Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Charles E. Bohlen, U. S. Ambassador to Russia, is unhappy about the way the U. S. Department of State backed down when the Communist Government said that the wife of an American diplomat had slapped a Russian and demanded that she be sent home. Mr. Bohlen expected action by Washington to counter a trumped-up charge and was surprised when none came. It's the first time Russians have manhandled an American protected by diplomatic immunity, and the Ambassador is afraid that a weak attitude will make life for U. S. diplomats in Russia still more unpleasant.

Communist newspapermen in Hanoi and Hong Kong are questioning Westerners about probable U. S. reaction to a Red Chinese attack on offshore islands and on Formosa. The key question always asked at the end of a conversation is this: If Chinese Communists attack Formosa, will the U. S. defend that island only, or will it attack bases on the mainland?

A Western visitor to Communist China, riding in a train compartment for several hours with Red Chinese Army officers, found much of the conversation devoted to problems of Formosa's "liberation." The consensus: "It will be very difficult to take Formosa, but it must be taken."

India's Nehru, in his talks with China's Mao Tse-tung, got no real satisfaction from the Communists on the question of future Communist expansion. The Chinese put nothing tangible into writing and closed no doors to future conquest.

Just Between You, Me . . . and the Gatepost

By Lawrence Hunnicutt

Annell Clay was home last week from Fritch where she's teaching school. She admitted that she was somewhat disappointed because many people don't know where Fritch is. It sure leaves an empty feeling when you tell someone where you're working and they stare at you with an open mouth as though you were speaking of some strange, new planet. You also have to be careful not to pretend that you know more about a place than you really do. Always try for the happy medium.

Noticed that Coach Harrison's Eagles beat the Dumas Demons Friday night. Each week that we write, "the Eagles are still undefeated," gives us a greater pleasure. The thrill is heightened by the fact that sports writers in this vicinity rated the Eagles very low at the beginning of the season. Friday night the Demons that held a high place with the sports scribes, fell to the Eagles by a score of 20 to 14.

The Chamber of Commerce is getting behind the E-way this time in hopes of promoting success in the bond election. The E-Way question sort of has a new light shed upon it now that the state has pushed through the amendment to prohibit construction of toll roads.

If you're a person who thoroughly enjoys an old fashioned get-together, be at the VFW Club tonight for the Veterans' Day dance. The club set the dance for the night of the 10th so more people could have the night of the 11th free to rest up from the holiday. VFW Commander Boots McBroom and the other officers and members of the club held a meeting early in October and decided upon the Veterans' Day dance. And by the way, if you hadn't noticed it, this is the first year November 11 has been termed Veterans' Day. Heretofore it has been Armistice day honoring veterans of the first World War. There have been too many wars to have a holiday for each one so they changed the name of Armistice and started using it for both wars.

Two local firms are doing some remodeling work at this time. In case you haven't noticed it, the Sternberg Lumber Company has walled itself up and is doing a big job of remodeling. They should have a really super place there when they get through if the amount of tearing out has anything to do with it. Then there's the J. J. Walker Prescription Laboratory that is being remodeled. Maybe time is passing faster than it seems but we recall not too many ago the J. J. Walker firm was remodeled. Wouldn't it be nice if you could remodel your home or business every year?

There was an excellent crowd out for the Hallowe'en party at the Anderson Appliance Company Saturday, Oct. 30. The Appliance Company borrowed the Home Economist of the Southwestern Public Service Company for the occasion. This assured a good demonstration for the guests and also the refreshments afterward.

Riley Troth said Saturday morning that there was an excellent crowd at the football game Friday night. He believes the Eagles' scouting force has done an excellent job this season which has, in turn, allowed the Eagles to win all their games so far. As Riley so aptly put it, Friday night is the acid test for the Eagles.

Time to start counting the days until Thanksgiving and then until Christmas. Everyone has been talking about how fast this year is going or has gone, so that should be a cue for holiday shopping. And you can be sure that it won't be many days until you'll see folks going down the street carrying gayly wrapped packages.

LUNCHEON-BUSINESS MEETING HELD AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The Christian Women's Fellowship met at the First Christian Church Tuesday, Oct. 26, for their monthly luncheon and business meeting. Members of group 2 with Mrs. D. R. Weaver as service chairman, were hostesses.

Following the lunch hour in Fellowship Hall, an interesting program was presented with Mrs. Gene Wright, leader. Her topic was "One in Christ Jesus." Mrs. Luke Miller, assisted by Mrs. Lee Roy Moreland, brought an inspirational devotion.

During the business hour, with Mrs. Bob Gatten presiding, emphasis was placed on cooperation with the United Church Women of Can-

State Capitol NEWS

Texas Press Association

AUSTIN: Taxes—how much and where from?

State legislators and employees asked that question this week as the problem of meeting increased state expenses became a topic that might will dominate the 1955 legislative picture.

The Texas Research League, at request of Governor Allan Shivers, started a survey to determine how much is needed, checking state income, spending, and sources of additional revenue.

Considered as eliminated from the prospect list are only a general sales tax and a state income tax, both opposed by Shivers.

However, legislators going back to jobs in January are expecting plenty of taxation recommendations to fly. Major taxation may be held until the League makes its report.

Governor Addresses League

Speaking before the annual meeting of the Research League, Shivers stressed that Texas is entering an era of greatly increased spending. Advance planning is needed to get the most of each dollar spent and to prevent hurried spending in which the full dollar value is not obtained, he said, complimenting the research group for its report on the hospital system.

Shivers also commented that Texas has fewer jobs than other states, plus a State Treasury surplus of $39,000,000 and a very low debt, in contrast with deficits in many states.

The Research League now is conducting studies of public school financing, the state hospital system and the University of Texas System. Two new studies have been added to their work list. One will be on operation of the Department of Public Safety and the other on tax-supported library services of Texas.

Asking For More

Already hammering for a boost in budgets are state hospitals, highway patrol, water conservation agencies, and the prison system.

Definite receivers of additional money are state teachers and schools.

No definite figures as to what is needed have been set although State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert reported that government costs increased $108 million in the year ending August 31.

One tax proposal, boosting gasoline taxes from four to five cents, has been made. It would provide $33 million for roads and schools but general state spending wouldn't benefit.

Schools Get More

Calvert said preliminary estimates show that the state will spend about $30 million more on schools this year because of increased teachers' salaries and enrollment. School expenses in 1953-54 amounted to more than $205 million, he said.

Also considered in taxation plans will be requests of the State Highway Commission and State Hospitals and facilities for handicapped children.

The hospitals, which received $42 million, are seeking increases of $32 million for the next two years.

Highway commissioners are asking an additional outlay to put highways in first class condition.

Water Conservation

Latest newcomer to join the "more money" bandwagon was the Texas Water Resources Committee which advocated a $100 million state bond issue for water resources development and a three-cent property tax to help pay off the bonds.

Both will be recommended to the January legislature after two years of study by the Committee.

Texas Prison System

Money for an effective parole and probation system is being asked by four state agencies.

Recommendations of the Board of Pardons, Department of Public Safety, Texas Prison System and State Auditor C. H. Cavness's office seek $249,661 in the 1955 fiscal year to start the program and $345,232 the following year.

Cavness said that the Texas parole system, while not rated as among the worst, is not among the best. He said the situation could be remedied if the legislature okays the request.

Special Election

A called election early in December will fill the state senate vacancy created by the death of Senator Harley Sadler of Abilene, Governor Shivers has announced.

Shivers said that under the Election Code he cannot call a special election until after the November 2 general election. He must then give 30 days notice of the election.

Drought Relief

Red tape has slowed the federal hay-relief program for drought-hit farmers and ranchers to a pace that is doing no one any good, charges Commissioner of Agriculture John C. White.

White said that only one farmer in four is using his portion of allotted hay, mainly because of an eight-sheet information form required by the government.

Another reason for failure of the program is the inability of farmers to make initial hay purchases, he said.

"It does little good for the government to pay part of the transportation cost with the farmer can't afford to buy the hay," he said.

Draft

Attention: Draft-age Texans! If you haven't received your pre-induction physical, you'll still be home for Christmas.

Texas' draft quota for December, lowest since June, will be filled by a surplus of men already examined for induction.

The motoramic Chevrolet for '55

Great new 8

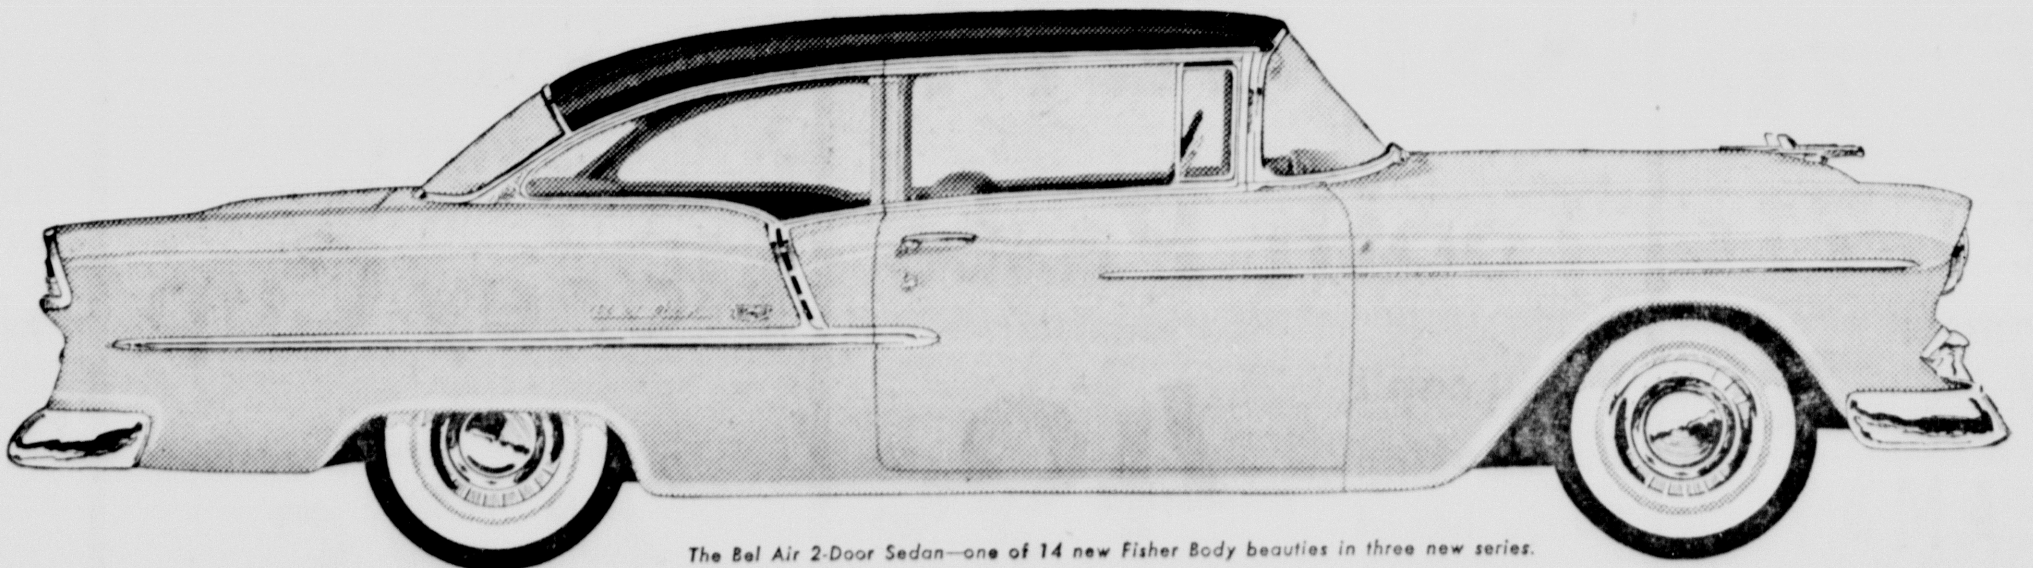

Two new 6's 6

It's the valve-in-head V8 as only the valve-in-head leader can build it!

You'd expect Chevrolet to out-V8 the field—and it has! Chevrolet's new "Turbo-Fire V8" puts a brand-new kind of excitement under your foot. The excitement of 162 horsepower! The excitement of an 8 to 1 ultra-high compression ratio that squeezes more pure fun out of a gallon of gas than you ever dreamed possible! The new "Turbo-Fire V8" is so wonderfully efficient that it requires only four quarts of oil instead of the usual five or more. And it has the shortest piston stroke in the low-price field, for longer engine life. But we can't even begin to give you the whole story here. Come in and let the new "Turbo-Fire V8" speak for itself. You'll like what it has to say!

With enough new advances to fill a book!

Chevrolet offers two new highstepping sixes for 1955! There's the new "Blue-Flame 136" (teamed with Powerglide as an extra-cost option) and the new "Blue-Flame 123." Both bring you new, higher-rated power—the zippy, thrifty high-compression kind. Both have new, more efficient cooling and lubrication systems . . . new engine mounts that result in almost unbelievable smoothness. And, like the new "Turbo-Fire V8," both are sparked by a new 12-volt electrical system for finer performance and faster cold-weather starting. All in all, they're the liveliest, smoothest sixes Chevrolet ever put into a passenger car. As you know, that covers a lot of territory. And so will you—with either of these two new sixes!

The Bel Air 2-Door Sedan—one of 14 new Fisher Body beauties in three new series.

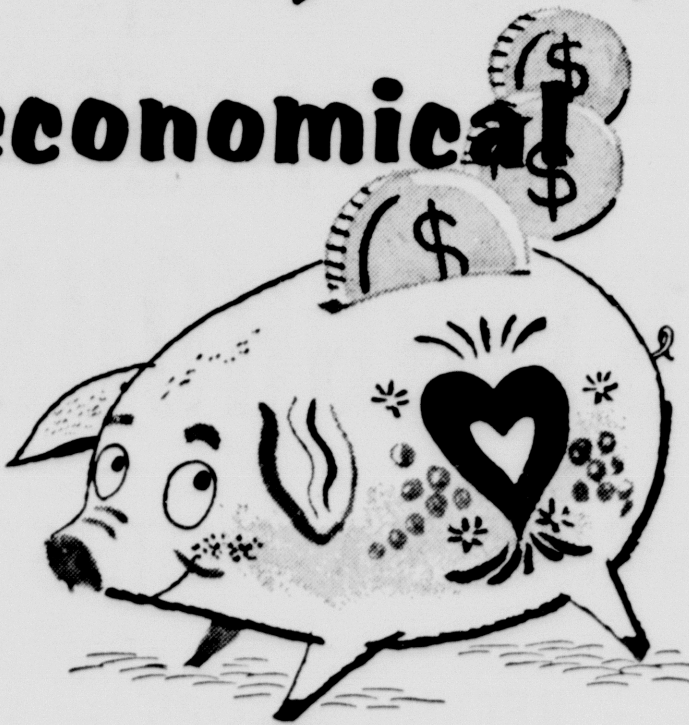

More than a new car . . . a new CONCEPT of low-cost motoring

(and much too good to miss driving!)
